

THE STORY OF BAQIR AHMADI

The story of an Afghan boy from Kabul to Canada.

This is BAQIR Ahmadi. When I wanted to come to Canada, I knew that I would have to deal with many problems and anyway I fought with all these problems and came to Canada.

My story started when Afghanistan fell and fell into the hands of the Taliban.

Everyone was confused and wondering how to escape from the Taliban, and so was I until I found out that I could get a Brazilian visa from a second country and I knew. Afghanistan is dangerous for me.

I went to Iran with difficulty and got a Brazilian visa and came to Brazil.

I was in Brazil for about 3 months, even though I don't know Portuguese, I was solving problems until I decided to come to Canada because Canada is one of my favorite countries. I love it. In short, I went to Peru from Brazil.

And I rejected all the American countries like this until I reached America.

After 7 days I am currently working in a restaurant and learning English. BAQIR Ahmadi's story was this until here.

Best.
