

A Platform for Youth-Led Policy Innovation

Applicant: Edris Dashty

Description:

This administration-focused initiative is designed to establish a sustainable framework for youth-led policy innovation by fostering meaningful collaboration with international women's rights activists across the United States. Through strategic meetings, the project will facilitate dialogue on global gender equality issues, share innovative approaches to advocacy, and strengthen ties between youth leaders and women's rights champions.

Key Components:

1. Meetings with International Women's Rights Activists:

Participants: Influential women's rights advocates, leaders from non-profits, and grassroots organizers.

Purpose: To explore strategies for incorporating gender equality into youth-led policy initiatives and creating cross-border advocacy networks.

Outcomes: Partnerships and action plans to integrate gender-focused policy recommendations into broader advocacy frameworks.

2. Policy Collaboration Workshops:

Interactive sessions to brainstorm solutions to pressing gender equity challenges, with a focus on youth engagement in policymaking.

Discussions will center on creating inclusive policies that address the diverse needs of women and youth globally.

3. Media and Marketing Campaign:

Highlighting the project's key events and outcomes through social media, traditional media outlets, and community outreach.

Showcasing the impact of collaboration between youth leaders and women's rights activists.

4. Administration and Documentation:

Compilation of insights from meetings and workshops into a comprehensive report on advancing gender equality through youth-led initiatives.

Development of a follow-up plan to ensure sustained engagement and collaboration with women's rights activists.

5. Government Relations:

Building connections with policymakers to advocate for policies that support women's rights and youth empowerment.

Ensuring the outcomes of this initiative are shared with key government stakeholders for broader impact.

Expected Outcomes:

1. Enhanced Collaboration:

Established partnerships between youth leaders and international women's rights activists, creating opportunities for long-term advocacy.

2. Innovative Policy Frameworks:

Actionable strategies for integrating gender equality into youth-led policy initiatives.

3. Amplified Advocacy Efforts:

Increased visibility for women's rights and youth empowerment through strategic media and marketing efforts.

4. Sustainable Engagement:

A roadmap for ongoing collaboration with women's rights activists and policymakers to ensure the project's impact endures.

Budget Breakdown (March 9–15, 2025):

1. Travel: $1,100

Airfare and local transportation for Idrees Dashty and a project coordinator to travel between meetings and events.

2. Accommodation (6 nights): $1,200

Hotel accommodations near meeting venues across key cities in the United States.

3. Meals (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner): $600

Daily meal allowances for two participants throughout the project.

4. Media and Marketing: $700

Social media promotions, graphic design, and outreach materials to amplify the project's outcomes.

5. Administration: $500

Costs for coordination, logistics, and documentation, including the preparation of meeting agendas and follow-up reports.

6. Incidentals: $400

Miscellaneous expenses for supplies and unforeseen costs during the initiative.

7. Government Relations: $500

Expenses for engagement with U.S. policymakers to share project insights and advocate for supportive policies.

Total Budget: $5,000