

Empowering Youth Voices Through Collaboration

Applicant: Anita Yaqubi

Description:

This operations-focused initiative is designed to build bridges between youth leaders, civil society stakeholders, and influential media personalities across North America. Through strategic engagement, the project aims to strengthen youth advocacy efforts and establish impactful partnerships. Core activities include meetings with stakeholders from civil society organizations and prominent media figures, supported by comprehensive outreach, media campaigns, and robust management strategies.

Key Components:

1. Engagement with Civil Society Stakeholders:

Participants: Representatives from leading NGOs, advocacy groups, and think tanks.

Purpose: To exchange insights and develop strategies for integrating youth perspectives into the activities of civil society organizations.

Outcomes: Partnerships and collaborative frameworks to support youth-led advocacy and civic engagement initiatives.

2. Meetings with Media Personalities:

Participants: Prominent journalists, social media influencers, and public figures in media.

Purpose: To explore effective communication strategies for amplifying youth voices and increasing the visibility of their initiatives.

Outcomes: Media collaborations to spotlight youth projects and inspire broader public engagement.

3. Media and Marketing Campaign:

Development of targeted campaigns to highlight project activities and disseminate outcomes to a global audience.

Creation of high-quality digital content, including interviews, articles, and social media posts, to showcase the project's impact.

4. Outreach and Management:

Coordination with civil society organizations and media professionals to ensure alignment on shared goals.

Establishment of clear communication pathways and scheduling of follow-up meetings to sustain engagement.

5. Administration and Follow-Up:

Compilation of a detailed report documenting key insights and recommendations from stakeholder meetings.

Implementation of follow-up strategies to track progress on partnerships and ensure long-term collaboration.

Expected Outcomes:

1. Strengthened Partnerships with Civil Society:

Established connections between youth leaders and influential stakeholders in civil society organizations.

2. Enhanced Media Presence:

Broader recognition of youth-led initiatives through collaborative efforts with media professionals.

3. Actionable Strategies for Advocacy:

Development of a roadmap for integrating youth perspectives into the agendas of civil society organizations and media platforms.

4. Sustainable Collaboration Models:

Frameworks for ongoing engagement between youth leaders, civil society stakeholders, and media personalities.

Budget Breakdown (March 9–15, 2025):

1. Travel: $1,200

Airfare and local transportation for Anita Yaqubi and a project coordinator to travel between meetings and events.

2. Accommodation (6 nights): $1,200

Hotel stays in central locations near meeting venues in New York City.

3. Meals (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner): $600

Covers daily meal allowances for two participants during the project timeline.

4. Media and Marketing: $600

Costs for social media promotions, graphic design, and content creation to highlight project activities and outcomes.

5. Outreach and Management: $500

Includes expenses for stakeholder communication, meeting logistics, and participant coordination.

6. Incidentals: $400

Miscellaneous expenses, including supplies and minor unforeseen costs.

7. Administration and Follow-Up: $500

Expenses related to documentation, reporting, and follow-up communications to ensure the project's sustainability.

Total Budget: $5,000