CHAMPIONS OF INCLUSION: Youth Leaders Camp

15th November 2023

OVERVIEW

PROJECT LEADER: Bremiella De Guzman

Bremiella De Guzman is an award winning Youth Leader for her social work during her reign as Miss BC 2019 and Miss Canada 2020. She was awarded with Surrey's "Top 25 under 25" and was nominated with YWCA's "Young Woman of Distinction Award" in 2020 for her "Spread The Word: Inclusion" project together with Special Olympics. She obtained her Bachelor of Social Work at UBC in 2018 and is currently enrolled in the Graduate Diploma of Business Administration at SFU, a stepping stone towards the MBA program. She currently works for the BC Public Service as a Quality Service Analyst at Community Living BC, assessing and monitoring programs and services for adults with diverse abilities. In 2020, she was honoured with CLBC's "Making A Difference Award," the youngest employee to ever do so since CLBC's inception in 2005. She hopes to one day start her own non-profit housing organization that aims to provide affordable housing for individuals with intellectual disabilities.

PROJECT IDEA: INCLUSION CAMP

A Youth Leadership Camp empowering grades 10-11 students to develop inclusion clubs at their high school with a goal of garnering pledges of inclusion.

All students will be provided with resources and training from Spread The Word Inclusion Global.

The student who garnered the most pledges will win "Youth Leader of the Year" at the Champions of Inclusion virtual recognition event held on Spread The Word Inclusion Day, March 5, 2025.

GOALS

1. Host "Inclusion Camp" at Camp Alex in Surrey, BC for 20 Youth Leaders grades 10 & 11 (Youth Engagement/Empowerment)
2. Launch "Inclusion Clubs" at Surrey Secondary Schools (Inclusivity and Community Service)
3. Garner 10,000 pledges of inclusion in Surrey by March 2025 (most pledges from youth leader wins "Youth Leader of the Year" on March 5, 2025 Spread The Word Inclusion Day)
